MINERS ARE MARCHING.

A Warm Reception Has Been Prepared for the Invaders in Hopkins County.

FAMILY POISONED BY ICE CREAM.

Spain's Dead Premier Will Be Buried Tomorrow.—Lying in State at Madrid.

OTHER LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 10.—The miners in accordance with their plan of campaign are now marching on Ohio and West Virginia mines. There are no new developments today.

WARRANTS ARE READY

For Prospective Invaders of Hopkins County, Where the Gringos Are Not Wanted.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 9.—The people of Hopkins county are aroused by the threatened invasion by Indiana miners who propose to come into Kentucky in a body and intimidate or force the miners here to quit work. The point of attack designated by the miners is Earling, where are situated the largest mines in Western Kentucky. But their coming would be equally interference and a menace to the various other mines in the county, and most probably would be the occasion of serious trouble.

The miners want to work, and the people and the officials of the county are determined that they shall be protected in their right to decide whether they will work or not, without outside interference. The officials of the county have today issued warrants against persons who may invade this county for the purpose of interfering by intimidation or otherwise with the working miners.

The sheriff is armed with the authority to summon the power of the county to his aid to prevent any invasion of personal or property rights of the miners and operators of Hopkins county. The farmers and other citizens of the county are ready to act at a moment's notice and a posse of any number could be raised in an hour's notice if an invasion should be attempted.

If the marching miners should know the temper of Kentuckians here upon the question of personal rights they will think twice before they cross the Ohio.

PAUL ICE CREAM.

THE ICE MAN.

And How He Had to Apologize.—Sensational Warrants Issued.

Is Hinton of Arcadia, Wanted By Ice Man Paul A. Jones.

Gus Hinton is the name of a young man who resides on a farm adjoining Judge J. W. Blountfield's residence in Arcadia. Just now he is in a peak of trouble, and it all had its inception over 10 cents worth of ice. He was arrested this morning on two warrants issued by Justice Winchester, one charging him with carrying a pistol concealed, and the other pointing it at Paul A. Jones, who drives one of the Paducah Ice Company's wagons, and with threatening to kill him.

It happened this way. Mrs. Hinton engaged ice from Jones, who makes that part of the section. Sometimes Jones is late and it was only a day or two ago that he was delayed.

According to his story, when he reached the locality he stopped the wagon, observed by Mrs. Hinton, and proceeded to saw the ice. She said nothing to him, or indicated in any way that she had already been supplied.

The way the house is situated is was compelled to walk quite a distance with the ice, and when he reached the house she informed him that she wanted none, having already bought it.

He made some remark about not having told him so before, and signified his determination to leave no more ice there.

Hinton resented it, and yesterday came out, and accosted him.

walked up and remarked that he guessed Jones had better go up and apologize to the lady he insulted the day before. Jones said he didn't believe he would, whereupon Hinton drew a pistol, leveled it at him, and commanded him to proceed.

The proximity of the weapon was slightly encouraging to Mr. Cooper, who decided he did have time to go up after all.

When the house was reached Hinton ordered Jones to kneel, and as the pistol was still smiling at him, Mr. Jones kindly obliged his captor.

Hinton then dictated the apology word by word, and Mr. Jones, to accommodate him, repeated the apology with all the eloquence he could command. He then had to call himself all sorts of names in pursuance of Mr. Hinton's dictatorial requests, ably enforced by the pistol. Hinton, the defendant, to Justice Winchester this forenoon, gave a slightly different version of the affair. He said when Jones delivered the ice his wife informed him that she already had enough, but as he had taken the trouble to bring it to the house, agreed to take it also. He became angry and wouldn't leave it. Hinton denied that the gun was concealed, but said that he did draw it and tell Jones that he had to apologize to which he replied that "he'd be O—d— if he did." He did not deny threatening to kill him if he refused.

The cases against Hinton are set for Thursday morning.

NATIONAL CIRCUIT DATE.

Paducah Will Get the L. A. W. Crack Riders October 15.

The Paducah Cycle Club yesterday received a telegram from Chairman Albert Moot, of the L. A. W. racing board, granting Paducah October 15 for the national circuit date.

Louisville has the 14th, St. Louis the 16th and Paducah, an intermediate point, has the 16th.

This will bring here the best riders in the country, including Cooper, Sanger, Gardner, Kiser and other crack riders, as well as Richardson, the trick rider, and his mimic, young Clarence Lane, of Covington.

The Paducah Cycle Club is very jubilant over its success in securing the open date, and will begin preparations at once for the event, the importance of which cannot be overestimated.

TRACK TORN UP.

Water Spout Damages the N. C. & St. L. Railroad Near Memphis.

Last night there was general delay on the N. C. & St. L. railroad as a result of a water spout a few miles out of Memphis.

The torrent swept away a large stretch of track and as a result laid the passenger train which left here yesterday afternoon, as well as all the centennial fast flyers.

It is thought J. B. Wyatt has a chance on the nomination.

Thomas Brown, alias Pickett Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a warrant just one year old today, charging him with maliciously cutting a man on Plunkett's Hill in a crap game.

The warrant was sworn out by ex-Chief Hall, and the case will come up for trial tomorrow.

Mr. W. J. Dugan, of Cairo, who has been here looking over the sites with the intention of locating a carriage factory here, left at noon for Paducah.

Hinton resented it, and yesterday came out, and accosted him.

REPUBLICANS ARE MEETING.

J. G. Bailey Has a Walk Over for Clerk of Court of Appeals Nomination.

FIRST DISTRICT DELEGATES MEET.

Governor Bradley Will Be Endorsed, But Civil Service May Not Be.

OTHER CONVENTION NEWS OF INTEREST.

Louisville, Aug. 10.—The Republican state convention met at 2 p. m. and was called to order by State Committee Chairman C. M. Barnes. Senator Deloe was made temporary chairman and S. J. Roberts secretary.

Louisville, Aug. 10.—The Republican state convention will be called to order this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Music Hall. About 700 delegates are present and the convention promises to be lively, enthusiastic and brief.

Senator Deloe has been selected for temporary chairman and Sam Roberts for temporary secretary. Mr. George Denay will be permanent chairman and Mr. J. G. Bailey will be nominated on the first ballot for clerk of the court of appeals.

There are only three candidates for clerk of the court of appeals: J. G. Bailey of McGowen county; J. H. Tracy of Knox county, and John Feland, Jr., of Christian county.

Mr. Bailey will be nominated on first ballot. He is a young man, only 29 years of age, a fine speaker and will make a fine candidate. He was a member of the last legislature.

The administration of Governor Bradley will be endorsed. This fact removes the only chance for a hot time, as the Bradley men would not have been defeated without a bitter fight.

There will be considerable interest over the manner in which the civil service is handled in the resolutions. It is expected that there will be a warm time in settling this question. The enemies of civil service will show a good deal of strength.

Mag. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, who was appointed by Gov. Bradley to fill a seat in the United States senate until the legislature is seated, is one of the enemies and he is prepared to give his reasons. On this subject he said yesterday:

"The civil service law is un-American; it leads to life tenure in office and should not be tolerated. The responsibilities of all departments rest on the heads of the departments as they properly should. For this reason they should be given the power to appoint clerks and deputies in order that they might better stand the blame for any irregularities. The old way of making appointments serve a six-months' probation is the best after all. The fact that a person answers a few questions and successfully stands an examination does not necessarily fit him or her for a government position. Often they are absolutely unsuited for the places and then when incompetents are discharged for such 'cause' a great deal of adverse criticism against the head of the department is created."

Every district was represented at the meeting of the state central committee yesterday afternoon and last night, as follows: First, W. J. Dugan; Second, E. C. Vance; Third, W. S. Taylor; Fourth, G. M. Barnes; Fifth, R. L. Gwathmey; Sixth, George Lieberth; Seventh, W. C. Cureton; Eighth, W. J. Wilmore; Ninth, J. S. Huff; Tenth, K. J. Hampton; Eleventh, R. D. Hill.

Neither of the two members from the state-at-large was present yesterday. Congressman D. G. Colson was detained at Barbourville by the trial of the slayer of his brother. The other member is the Hon. Nat. F. Howard, of Butler county.

The committee had but one contest to settle, which was soon attended to.

The main work of the state central committee was the making of some changes in the party's rules.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.

Delegates to the Republican Convention Organized.

Louisville, Aug. 10.—The delegates from the various districts met in their respective places this morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Hodgeson, of Ballard county, was made chairman of the First district convention, and F. M. Fisher, of Paducah, the secretary. Hon. J. H. Ashcraft, of Paducah, was present, and not being a delegate, was made one by the courtesy of Mr. Fisher, chairman of McCracken county.

Thompson, of the Paducah Street Railway Company, at 9 o'clock this morning, at Fourth and Broadway, and accorded the company permission to construct the "turnouts" desired to perfect a transfer system, in accordance with the action at last night's council meeting, as chronicled elsewhere.

THE FRITZ BLOWS UP.

Was Wrecked Last Night Near Cairo.—Ten Men Missing.

Four Are Known to be Badly Injured—Had a Tow of Logs.

The handsome towboat Fritz, which passed Paducah Sunday, is now a wreck. Her flues collapsed at 7 o'clock last evening ten miles below Cairo, while she was on her way to Cairo from O'Brien's Landing with a tow of logs.

The Ora Lee towed her into port at Cairo. Ten men missing and four badly sealed. The injured were sent to the Marine Hospital.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

George Bryant, the Alleged Murderer, Goes Free.

George Bryant, alias Albert Wilson, colored, who was arrested here last week on a warrant from Henderson charging him with being a fugitive from justice, wanted for the murder of Jeff Hancock, was released from custody yesterday afternoon.

The civil service law is un-American; it leads to life tenure in office and should not be tolerated. The responsibilities of all departments rest on the heads of the departments as they properly should. Jones, when called to the stand, positively denied that he had ever been on the porch or on the bed with the woman, or that he ever had improper relations with her. He said he had been married, but obtained a divorce from his wife, who now lives in Trigg county, last August.

He said when caught at the union depot yesterday he was preparing to go to Cadiz on business, while his fair partner was going up just for pleasure. It looked very much like an attempted elopement to the spectators.

No complaints are heard from the Populists about the 44 cent dollar. The cheaper silver gets, the more like flat money the dollar becomes, and that is just what a Populist wants.

Our farmers are paying off their mortgaged indebtedness at such a rate that loan agencies are complaining of an oversupply of money. To get this money back into circulation they are now offering loans on farm property at reduced rates. [Plainview (Minn.) News. Will this sad news for the calamity howlers never cease?

It is a peculiar and at the same time a sad fact that Miss Alice Barrett, the bookkeeper for Codman & Co., of Boston, and who was recently found dead from a bullet wound, was the first example of a woman in a similar position having betrayed her trust. It has developed that the suicide was short in her accounts $2,500.

The action of Populist Joe Parker in persisting in making the race for appellate clerk is very trying on the nerves of the silver Democracy. The silverites drove the sound money Democrats out of the party with the avowed determination of taking the Populists back in; but the Popes won't come. Hence the dilemma; the sound money Democrats are gone and so are the Populists and after one more election the silver Democracy will also be gone.

Spain is indeed in dire straits. The assassination of Canovas takes away her strongest statesman. His iron will and indomitable nerve have enabled Spain to carry on the war in Cuba and the Phillipine Islands and that too, in the face of a bankrupt treasury and of the almost countless Carlist plots against the reigning family. What the result of Canovas' death will be, no one can tell. It is fortunate for Cuba that the death of her most determined and most powerful foe took place at the hand of an anarchist, and that it can be traced to the Cuban insurgents in no way. With plotting anarchists, the conspiracy, and two disastrous rebellions, the future of Spain is dark; and the statesmen who can extricate the nation from its peril will be a man of almost superhuman abilities.

NEW TACTICS OF STRIKERS.

There is no question but that the great coal miners' strike is gaining ground every day, although slowly. The absence of violence on the part of the strikers has been the subject of universal comment, and unquestionably has greatly aided the strikers if public sympathy counts for anything.

More than a month has passed since the big strike of the coal miners began, and during that time no overt act on the part of the miners has occurred. The suspension of labor in the bituminous coal districts has not yet been sufficiently long to cause a coal famine, but the ranks of the strikers have been added to, and if the strike officials can succeed in bringing out other men who are being paid a very largely increased rate of wages to continue at work, they will command the situation. In fact, the success of the strike seems to be assured if the miners themselves can hold out. The summer weather is favorable to a protracted struggle, and the new method of marching to working mines in large bodies shifts the idle strikers from one point to another and gives different communities opportunities to give them food.

The strikers are gaining sympathy and deserved credit from the general public for the peaceful manner in which they have conducted the fight

When all the facts are known and the great provocation the strikers have had, people will wonder how trouble of a serious nature has not occurred. But the miners began the fight with every faculty alert, and they realize the great gravity of their cause with the people, in every place if no violence is done whatever to the property of the operators or to the persons of miners who refuse to join the movement.

The plan adopted at a conference of the strike officials the latter part of last month is being generally carried out, and this feature of the strike is as novel as the absence of violence.

The plans propose a direct march through territory where mines are being operated as far as possible. Camps will be left at each place where the leaders decide them to be necessary to keep the mines closed. It is estimated that at least 8,000 men will be kept constantly on the movement. This army will be governed by a military code which is now being formulated, and will be considerably on the order of the famous Coxey "Commonwealth" tour. Many new developments are expected this week which the leaders believe will lead to a settlement of the trouble and a victory for the miners.

SILVER IN MEXICO.

Stricken Republic of the Land of the Montezumas is Face to Face With a Crisis.

Silver's Decline Has Caused It and There is Talk of Requiring Interest on Bonds--Commercial Interests are in a Bad Condition.

New York, Aug. 9.—A special from Mexico City says: The continual falling of silver, and the corresponding rise in exchange have reached the point when this country is brought to face with what may be a serious crisis. No sophistry can hide the real condition of affairs here. It is all very well to say that Mexico can live with herself and can raise on a silver basis natural products that can sell abroad on a gold one. This would be perfectly satisfactory if there was such an enormous increase of wealth resulting from such conditions that it could bear a high rate of taxation, in order that the government might be able to meet its debt interest abroad by such means without any extra strain.

At this moment Mexican bonds are unaltered in London, principally owing to the scrupulous exactness under the most distressing conditions with which their interest has been met. These debts are in gold, and at this rate of exchange that interest is excessive and it is only a matter of time, unless there is a favorable change in silver, when this republic will be unable to stand it.

Reputation has an ugly sound, but something very like it under present circumstances must finally result. The great railway corporations and other foreign companies here have to meet a gold interest with a medium that is ever decreasing in value. It does not matter, however great the business and their capacity for money making, because the money earned is inadequate to meet their obligations abroad. There is only one thing for them to do, increase their earnings over 100-fold or consider that their foreign debt was contracted in silver.

Councilman Williamson stated that the city had considerable property, and moved that Mr. F. Dingley be appointed to get a schedule of all of it. The motion was carried.

Councilman Williamson read a resolution thanking the mayor and council of Memphis for permitting the city of Paducah to employ Mr. Elliott as consulting engineer. The council at Memphis granted the request. Mr. Elliott agreed to come here for $150 per month to remain as long as the city deems necessary.

There was some discussion relative to whether to employ him or to empower the sewerage committee to act, subject to the approval of the council.

The motion to employ Mr. Elliott at his own proposition was unanimously carried.

A Called Meeting of the Council Meets to Transact Important Business.

THE PUMP STATION LOCATED.

Sanitary Engineer Elliott, of Memphis, Employed as Consulting Engineer in Building the Big Sewer.

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

The council met last night in called session, all the members present except Mr. Stark.

The most important action taken was the location of a pump station and the employment of sanitary engineer Elliott, of Memphis, as consulting engineer in the construction of sewerage here.

The mayor read his call, stating that the purpose of the meeting was to provide a location for the sewerage pumping station, to appoint a committee to locate street car curves, to allow bills and to see about getting schedules all city property.

Councilman Williamson stated that he had corresponded with the gas company officials at Evansville and also with Supt. Harahan, of the I. C., relative to their property, but had received no reply.

He then moved that the pumping station be located on East Clay street, between Second and Third, and the motion prevailed.

The city engineer was instructed to locate the pump house there.

A bill of $10 for city hall was allowed.

A motion was made that the street committee make a contract of some sort with sanitary engineer Elliott, of Memphis, subject to the ratification of the council.

City engineer Wilcox stated that he had been sent to Memphis to confer with Mr. Elliott. That he had consulted the mayor and council there, and been advised by the former to make formal application to the council for permission to employ Mr. Elliott as consulting engineer.

The council at Memphis granted the request. Mr. Elliott agreed to come here for $150 per month to remain as long as the city deems necessary.

There was some discussion relative to whether to employ him or to empower the sewerage committee to act, subject to the approval of the council.

The motion to employ Mr. Elliott at his own proposition was unanimously carried.

Councilman Williamson stated that the city had considerable property, and moved that Mr. F. Dingley be appointed to get a schedule of all of it. The motion was carried.

Councilman Williamson opposed it, saying he objected to hurried action in anything.

Councilman Farley saw no reason for delay, saying he had confidence in the street committee and its ability, and knew it would see that it was done right.

The matter was referred to the street committee, Mayor and city engineer, with power to act.

The council then adjourned.

"My stars!" ejaculated a traveler who, while journeying through the Arkansas backwoods, stopped at a cabin to get his dinner. "You should not let that child play with that loaded revolver; it is a terrible risk!"

"Av, I dunno," replied the host, nonchalantly. "I've got about 'em more children around the place some times."

SPAIN IS IN MOURNING.

Prime Minister Canovas Was Murdered by a Red Handed Anarchist.

The Assassin Claims That He Has Taken Vengeance For His Friends and Brothers.

Madrid, Aug. 9.—This great Spanish city is in mourning. Senor Canovas del Castillo, the Prime Minister of Spain, was assassinated yesterday by an anarchist. The murderer fired three shots, two of which struck the Premier in the head and the other in the chest. The wounded man lingered unconscious for two hours, and died at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. His wife was but a short distance away when he fell.

Santa Agueda is noted for its baths. The place is between San Sebastian, the summer residence of the Spanish court and Vitoria, the capital of the province of Alava, about thirty miles south of Bilbao. The premier went there last Thursday to take a three-weeks' course of the baths, after which he expected to return to San Sebastian to meet United States Minister Woodford when the Minister should be officially received by the Queen Regent.

The assassination of the prime minister was undoubtedly cold-bloodedly premeditated. Golli deliberately watched for an opportunity to kill the Spanish statesman, and he only fired when he had no chance of missing. In fact, the assassin, who was arrested almost immediately after the premier fell dead at the feet of his wife, had declared as much to the examining magistrate.

The prisoner, who declared he had killed the premier "in the accomplishment of a just vengeance," at first gave the name of Ruperti, and claimed that the deed was the outcome of an extensive anarchist conspiracy. Later, however, the assassin confessed that his real name was Michele Angine Golli; that he was 26 years of age, a native of Boggia, near Naples, and that he left Italy and came to Spain in 1896. After reaching Spain Golli, according to his confession, resided at Barcelona and participated in the doings of the various anarchist associations of that place and vicinity. After sojourning at Barcelona for some time, Golli visited France and Belgium, and returned to Spain in July last. After his return the anarchists seemed to have completed the plans for the assassination of the Prime Minister. He left Madrid for Santa Agueda del Castillo, and waited an opportunity to assassinate the statesman.

Senora Canovas, wife of the premier, who was but a short distance away from her husband when the crime was committed, rushed to his side upon hearing the shots. As the premier lay dying upon the ground she bitterly reproached the murderer for his crime. Golli, in reply to the agonizing words of the distracted wife, said:

"I respect you because you are an honorable lady, but I have done my duty and am now easy in my mind, for I have avenged my friends and brothers of Montjuich."

Montjuich is the fortress of Barcelona, outside of which the anarchists who have been sentenced to death for recent outrages have been executed by being shot in the back. The anarchists recently executed outside of Montjuich were the last batch of the flots of who were guilty of throwing a bomb on June 7, 1896, into a religious procession about to enter the church of Santa Maria de Laram, upon the occasion of the Corpus Christi celebration. Twelve persons were instantly killed and about fifty, several of whom have died since from their wounds, were injured. For this crime twenty-six anarchists were sentenced to death and many of them were executed. The condemned men invariably

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

It is one of the advantages of the McKinley administration—this location of a Deputy U. S. marshal at Paducah. And Deputy Marshal La Rue is certainly a knitter. Since he came here two or three weeks ago he has made himself solely for United States Commissioner Puryear that the latter had to suddenly terminate a much needed rest at the spring, and come home. It is brightness characteristic of a Democratic administration to keep all the deputy marshals up where the distilleries are and leave the local option districts down here, where illicit whiskey or my other kind can be so much more easily disposed of, without the semblance of a revenue officer. But perhaps the Democratic deputies couldn't be made to leave the distilleries, and couldn't exist without them.

One thing is very noticeable since Deputy La Rue came down, and that is that there is considerable violation of the revenue laws in this part of the state, and that it is going to speedily diminish, because he allows no grass to grow under his feet, and will tend to 'em all in due time.

A certain matron now allows agents of no description to invade the sacred precincts of her front yard—or back yard, either, or that matter. She regards them all with suspicion.

First, she bought a quantity of carpet cleaner, which cleaned to perfection, when applied by the agent himself. When he left, however, she soon found that she could do nothing with it, and threw it away. It was thus with a preparation made to remove grease from the most delicate fabrics, and the powder she bought to clean wall paper, when she put it on herself, took all the dirt off, and the beautiful flowers and leaves as well, and a picture had to be hung over the spot she had tried to clean to save her the necessity of having the walls papered anew.

Then she bought patent pencils, patent bread knives, egg beaters, etc., to be thrown aside sooner or later because they wouldn't work. Finally a fellow came around with a soldiering contrivance with which the housewife, he said, could patch all the thwarts in the house, mend what was out and, save the purchase of many new articles of culinary use in a few moments by the use of his wonderful preparation. He patched a few pans, just to show how it was done, and it looked so simple and easy that he found in her a ready purchaser. But, to her utter discomfiture, when she attempted to do the soldering herself she found that it was an utter impossibility, and neither could any one else about the house do it.

Vengeance has now been sworn against all the tribe of peddlers and agents, and the first one that exhibits his smiling countenance at either door will need a very large patch, or a new pair of trousers entirely, for the bullock will be unmuzzled.

The London underground electric railway, which has found it advantageous to come to the United States for an equipment is laid in two deep tunnels eighty-five feet below the surface. At present the length of single track is thirteen and a half miles, but the system will be extended.

The current is taken from a third rail.

There will be thirty-five locomotives each hauling seven cars seating 356 persons. At the stations forty-nine high-speed electric elevators of American design and make will be installed, each able to carry 100 passengers per trip at a speed of 140 feet per minute.

The fare will be to and the estimate of passengers is 48,000,000 per annum. That American electrical apparatus has been found triumphant in this enterprise is a great triumph for this country.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The failures in July showed liabilities, according to Dunn & Co.'s estimate, of $7,111,727 compared with over $60,000,000 in July 1893. Times are surely getting better.

The executive committee of the Indianapolis Monetary Convention held last January has been called to meet in Chicago tomorrow to select a committee of eleven men, in accordance with the instructions of the convention, to make a thorough investigation of the currency question and to draw up a bill to be presented at the next session of congress.

Katherine Kennedy was of a gentle, amiable nature, and soon endeared herself to Fred—whom she seemed to like very much. But Anne Kennedy held her out resolutely, and only the threats of force induced her to yield.

"But she evidently realized the force of my remarks, for she returned to her room, and did not emerge any more until she had completely dressed, even to her veil. She never recognized me after that."

Early risers were regaled with a highly ludicrous spectacle this morning on North Fifth street in front of the government building.

Several wags caught a meandering William Gant, and poked whiskers into him until he got too tipsy to walk. It was a sight for the gods! The liquor overcame him by degrees. First he began to walk with uncertain step, then to stagger, and when he reached the fence had to lean against it for support.

When two of the colored porters went after him to bring him back, he had a genuine case of hiccoughs.

In the course of time he could not walk, and finally sank down in complete stupor, and was carried off to sober up in the nearest saloon.

Everybody did not relish the experiment, for when he recovered he switched his tail nervously, looked back the building with a wan, forget-me-not smile, and staggered off in an opposite direction.

A song by Paducah composers promises to make him when published. It is entitled, "Fly High, O' Buzzard, for Yo'll Have to Light."

The music is by Prof. Willie Gilbert and the words by City Editor
Irvin Coble of the "News." The title was derived from the words of George Winston, who says "Devil," the negro in jail charged with murdering his mistress, who spoke them to her as he stabbed her to death.
